History of CU State Support + Resident Tuition

The balance between state support and tuition revenue has changed markedly since the 1970s.

State support was once more than three times tuition revenue. State support is now less than half of resident tuition revenue.

For illustrative purposes, FY2021 state support includes all Federal Cares Act CRF. Without these funds, state support drops to 19%.

Note: Percentages based on nominal (unadjusted) dollar amounts. Data 1993 to present based on Budget Data Books; Prior to 1993 based on State Appropriations Reports and CU Regents meeting minutes.

FOUR CAMPUSES UNITED

History of State Funding

In FY 2022, state funding to CU is $279 million (including tobacco settlement and marijuana research funds plus federal CARES Act funding).

Adjusted for inflation and enrollment, the university needs $165 million to maintain the purchasing power it had in FY 2001.

For illustrative purposes, FY2021 state funding includes all Federal Cares Act CRF.

Note: Data is based on Budget Data Books and CDHE FTE. CPI from BLS.

FOUR CAMPUSES UNITED

CO Higher Education Sources of Revenue

FY 2021-22

State support represents a small share of total revenue for all Colorado public institutions.

The largest share of CU revenue comes from auxiliary and restricted revenue sources.

Auxiliary revenues include self-supporting enterprises, such as clinical health activities, student housing and bookstores.

Source: Total Revenue from the Office of the State Auditor Oct 2021; Estimated state funding and tuition revenue from Budget Data Books.

Resident UG Tuition & Fees Compared to Campus Peers

FY 2021-22

Despite recent increases in tuition rates, CU remains competitive with its peers.

Boulder resident undergraduate tuition remains below the peer group average, while Denver and Colorado Springs tuition rates are just above the peer average.

Note: Tuition rates are based on 30 credit hours per academic year; Peer tuition from published rates; Rates do not include the portion covered by the College Opportunity Fund (COF). Peer list is campus (IPEDS) peers. Boulder 32 peers, UCCS 31 peers, Denver 11 peers.
